Pendennis, Sept. 30.

THE Wind blowing all the last week at W. S. W. very few ships came into this Harbor, those that did, were all very small Vessels, except the Edward and John of London, laden with Lead and Lead Oar, bound from Leverpoole to Cadiz.

Swanzey, Sept. 30. We have had for these 14 days last past very stormy weather, which had its effects on some small Vessels on these Coasts. The Master of a small Vessel of Coombe, coming over here to load Coals a day or two before the bad weather began, did confidently report that he and his company upon their crossing the Severne, saw a Mair-Man appear a pretty while above water, the head and face being like that of a Mans, with long hair.

Stockholme, Aug. 24. The news we have here of a Peace being concluded between France and Holland, does occasion great rejoycing here; and people hope it will be followed by a general one, by which this Crown may recover what it hath lost during the War. The Ryx-Chancellor after 15 months absence is returned to Town.

Naples, Sept. 13. This evening sailed from hence 11 Ships and 4 Barks, having on board 600 Horse, and 3400 Foot, bound for Barcelona. It is hoped they will meet at Sea the Spanish Men of War, who have on board the Troops of Sicily, and are likewise going for Barcelona. If they were joined, we should be eased of the fears we are now in, that the French Men of War under the command of the Sieur du Quesne, may lie in wait for these ships that are gone hence, though the news in Town is, that the said Sieur du Quesne is returned with his Squadron to Thoulon.

Vienna, Sept. 22. Yesterday the Duke and Dutchess of Neuburg did formally ask the Archdutchess Anne in marriage for the Prince their Son; which the Emperor having granted, a Letter was presented to her from the Prince; and on the 6th of December, being St. Nicholas's day, the Marriage will be consummated at Neustadt.

Wismar, Sept. 30. In our last we gave you a particular account of the descent of the Danes and Brandenburgs on the Isle of Rugen, that they had taken the old and new Veer-schans, with very little loss on their part, and that Count Conigsmarke was passed over to Straelsond with what Troops he could save. Since we understand, that the Brandenburgs have possessed themselves of the Island Denholme, which lies between Rugen and Straelsond, the Enemies Troops that were posted there, retiring so soon as they understood that all was lost in Rugen; that the Elector of Brandenburg, who was in person on the Isle of Rugen, had caused several pieces of Cannon to be brought to Denholme, and a Battery to be raised there, from whence they fired upon Straelsond; and that that place had in like manner returned them several shot. Just now we have advice, that his Electoral Highness had sent to summon the place, that they within had demanded 14 days to consider of it, and that his Electoral Highness had answered that he would expect till the 6th of the next month, to know whether they would accept the Conditions offered by him, and in the mean time was preparing to attack them with all possible vigor in case they should refuse ethem.

Hamburg, Octob. 4. The Letters from Pomeren tell us, that the Elector of Brandenburg was going to attack the Town of Straelsond, having taken the Isle Denholme, and planted his Cannon there to battter the place, the Magistrates and Inhabitants whereof were encouraged by the presence of Count Coningsmarke (who, as some say, is wounded) to defend the City to the utmost, and as a mark of their resolution so to do, they had fired their Cannon upon the Brandenburgs, who were posted in the Island Denholme. It is said that most of the Germans who were in the service of the Suedes, have deserted and put themselves into that of the Elector of Brandenburg, and that Count Conigsmarke has not at present above 1200 men with him.

From the Imperial Camp at Serecke, Sept. 30. The Imperialists, as well Officers as Soldiers that were taken prisoners in the action at Rhinfelden, have been exchanged for the Marquis de Schomberg; they complain very much of their ill treatment, which had forced several to put themselves into the French service. We have advice that the French Army not being able longer to subsist where it now is, is going to return towards the Upper Alsace, and that the Artillery has already taken its way through the Forest of Haguenaw.

Strasburg, Sept. 30. The Sieur de Monclar is come back into these quarters from the French Army, and has posted his Troops in our Neighborhood, to hinder us from receiving any Provisions from abroad, and at the same time has renewed the prohibition to the Country people to bring any hither upon pain of death, and the Sieur de Langallerie has taken 50 Peasants that were coming hither with Fruits, &c. and threatens to hang them. The 28th Captain Gregoire went out from hence with a party of 120 Horse and Dragoons, and had the good fortune to meet near Landaw with a French Convoy, whom he defeated, killed two Captains, and 40 Soldiers, and took 50 prisoners, with 50 Horses, and two Mules, laden with Wines and other Provisions, which are brought hither. Yesterday the Sieur de Monclar, after having set fire to eight Arches more of our Bridge, drew the Garison out of the Rhin-schans, and abandoned it, and at the same time renewed the Garison in the other Fort, which is called the Toll-schans, and which it seems they mean to keep. He hath likewise burnt the Castle of Wantzenaw, and is this day marched towards Molzheim, to cover a Convoy that is going to the French Army, which we are told is to decamp and march towards the Mountains, not being longer able to subsist in the quarters where they now are.
